Reclaiming childhood, one family at a time.

Self Introduction

Centre Director

When I was 6 years old and my teacher asked me what I want to be when I grow up, in a heart beat my answer was 'Teacher'. I did not know why, but I wanted to be a teacher and was determined about it. Fast forward 10 years later, I got my first opportunity to volunteer as an assistant teacher in a kindergarten. This is when I found my true passion for working with children!

My interest in this profession stems from a desire to learn and understand more about children's behaviour. To learn more and be able to contribute more to children, I kept pursuing education and got graduated as Bachelor of Education and then Bachelor of Commerce.

After getting my Child Development Supervisor certification, I started working at daycare programs to contribute towards well being and grooming of children outside the school world, to ensure they felt like home and cared when away from their hardworking parents. I joined Bambini in 2018 for a short time, but in that time, I realized how they are different from other centers and it really interested me due to their focus on child's learning through various child-led and play based programs. After working couple years for Edmonton Public School Board with special needs children, I got the golden opportunity to join Bambini as their Center Director.

With my qualification, years of experience and support of amazing professionals at Bambini, I am confident that I will continue to contribute towards the well being and growth of children and maintain the amazing relationship with parents.

In the next few weeks, I will try to introduce myself to you in person, however, please do not hesitate to say Hi if you see me around. I would love to meet you!

Please feel free to reach out to me for any questions, concerns or suggestions. I am always available for you!

Out of School Care Co-ordinator

My name is Carrie-Anne. I have been working in childcare since 2007. I have my Childcare Worker Certification and am working towards Childcare Supervisor certificate through Grand Prairie Regional College. My passion is reading Children's verbal and non-verbal cues and helping them reach their greatest potential socially and emotionally.

I have a son who is in high school. In my free time, I am a Scout leader, social runner and love relaxing with a good book.

I am working with Bambini since October 2019 and look forward to continuing to learn and grow with the bambini family, staff, children, and parents.
